“ Paolo Giovanardi lit a candle in memory of Jack D. Marzuki

“ We are very sorry and sad to know about Jack's death. Even though we have lived far away, I have always perceived it near our family. I'm Paolo the son of Loredana, the Italian cousin. His letters were an appointment that followed the seasons and brought words of love and hope. I am sure I will miss it, that we will miss it. To me, especially to my mother Loredana and to my father Piero. We give to the family and loved ones our deepest condolences.

Thank you Jack, Thank you very much.

“ So sad to see you have left us here on earth. I was just thinking about you last night and decided to see how you were, thought maybe I would give you a call today. It was with a heavy heart I found your obituary instead. You were one of the most impactful patient's I was ever blessed to work with. You cared about anyone you came across and were always up for a nice chat. Rest easy Mr. Marzuki I know your pain is now gone.

“ My sincere condolences are extended to the family and friends of Jack Marzuki. Jack was a wonderful, giving, caring and interesting person. It was always fun to talk with Jack about his travelling adventures from years ago or his concern about the current state of affairs of (you name it). Jack gave us great lessons on how to live. Just one example: He was frugal and purchased inexpensive vehicles then set up foundations to share his gifts with others. It was an honor to know him.

“ Jack was a classmate from 2nd. grade through high school, and we kept in touch through the years. He was a very special person, especially in the care of his sister. I will miss his phone calls, school reminiscing and his sence of humor.
