“ I feel compelled to reach out to the Kluber family. My condolences & sympathy's are with you. Tom, it's been approximately 63 yrs. since we hung out at your house, at the bottom of the curve on Montgomery Rd. It was the kindness and generosity of your mother & dad that allowed me to stay with your while my mother gave birth to my youngest brother. Both your mother & father were great people. I've never forgotten them. - Lon (Lonny) Shore

“ My favorite memory of Joan, my Mom #2, occurred when I was a young boy of six or seven. I had a lisp that I went to speech therapy to cure. I had a lazy L & R so I would say 'ham booger' instead of hamburger, 'yettuce' instead of lettuce and 'Kloo-boo' instead of Kluber. After many weeks I had a breakthrough and began forming my L's and S's. My mom told me to go show Mrs. K my progress. She said that Mrs. K might even make me a burger. I was so excited that I ran to their house and rang the doorbell. Keep in mind that I knew the door was unlocked and it was quite normal for us kids to just run into each others house. But my mom said it would be more impressive if I rang the bell. So I rang the bell, took a deep breath and waited. Almost immediately the door opened and there stood Mrs. K with that wonderful smile on her face. "Well hello there Jeff. What can I do for you?" This was my first big test to show how I had conquered my lisp. With a big grin on my face, I spoke. "Good afternoon Mrs. Kluber. Could I have a hamburger?" I said each word perfect! I was so happy! Mrs. K's face lit up and her smile got bigger! She was so proud of me. "That was beautiful Jeff. Of course you can have a hamburger. I've got one cooking right now, come on in." Speaking carefully, and properly, I responded "Thank you very very much Mrs. Kluber. Can you put some lettuce on it?" Her smile somehow got even bigger. "I'd be happy to Jeff." "Thanks Mrs. Kluber." And I walked in and had my burger. I had no idea that my mom had called Joan to tell her I was on my way and why. That is why the burger was cooking. She was waiting at the door because she was so excited and proud. And that's why she was Mom #2 for me. Thank you for so much love and joy.

“ I am a high school friend of Joan's daughter, Sue Kluber. Joan was always so welcoming and kind. I'll never forget sitting in the kitchen while she was wrapping up a package with some goodies to send off to Tom at college. She was telling me how she used to call him "Tom Turkey". All the sudden she started laughing when she realized she had addressed the package to "Tom Turkey"! We all had a good laugh (maybe not Tom!) She had a wonderful sense of humor. I'm sure she will be missed by many people. My heart goes out to Sue and her family in this difficult time. Laura Towle
