“ Grandma - your never-ending love, care, and kindness has made a lasting impacting on my life. You encouraged me to learn more about the world and think creatively. I always enjoyed visiting, and having the chance to share new ideas and music with you. I know that you will still be with each and everyone of us in spirit, and I will always keep you in my thoughts.

“ Grandma, there is no easy way to put into words the loss felt without you here. We will come together as a family to mourn the loss of no longer having your comforting spirit, words of wisdom and loving grace. To honor what you meant to so many we will also celebrate the memories that we were so fortunate to share with you. I consider myself lucky that I got to experience your love, patience, creativity, and so much more. I am luckier still that my children where able to experience so much with their great-grandma.

You will be missed but we know now that we have another guardian angel looking over us all. Until we are all together I will take comfort knowing you are watching over us still.

With loving hearts,

Joe, Emily, Joey, Addie, and Lily

“ Peg was like a second mother to me. Gracious, kind, loving and selfless. Her door was always open and her arms open wide whenever family came to visit.

She told me many years ago that her dream for her children is that “they are happy within themselves”. She was proud of their different personalities and that they all succeeded in life.

I know she bypassed many people on her way up the steps of heaven as her trust and love for the Lord was devout and strong. She is a true angel. She had a halo when I met her and now has her wings. I will miss her terribly and be forever thankful to her for giving me my family~for without her, my husband and children would not be.

I will always cherish her words to me and anyone who would call or visit: “Be well in every way and God Bless”.

I will treasure all the memories I have of her and know she will always be with us.

Love and Hugs,
Sherri

“ I am blessed to have grown up under your pure, holy, love and guidance, Grandma. My memories us of doing arts and crafts, crocheting, sewing, and everything creative together mean everything to me. It seemed like every time we were together we were always creating and coming up with something new. Always an innovator, you taught me how to think of things in different ways than I ever could have imagined. I cherish all of the time I've spent with you Grandma, you shaped the person I am today. I love our laughs and conversations together and time spent smiling and laughing with our amazing family during holidays and birthdays. I love the girl time with you, Mom, and I. I love your love. I love that our connection is everlasting, Grandma-with you and I and every soul you've touched. "I am beautiful, I am beloved, and I have a secret." I love you.

“ I had the privilege of doing Mrs. Gorski's hair for many years. Marie would bring her to the salon and we would have the best conversations. She had a beautiful heart. When she would get home Mr. Gorski would tell her how beautiful she looked! I will truly miss her. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mr. Gorski, Marie and her family and to the extended family. May God bless you all.

“ Mom - The world since your passing is a lesser place. The love and happiness you exhibited on a daily should be a standard for the entire human race to aspire to. The great successes we achieved in our lives found their essence in your teachings and daily examples of how to treat others, how to respect every person we meet and how to work hard in everything that we took on, to yield a positive outcome. You taught us the importance of an education and gently nudged us toward the importance of being a good neighbor and citizen.

I will miss and love you forever.

“ From Linda Lack to Gorski Family:
OUR AUNT PEG

Is a wonderful example of what it means to be a really good human being. A quiet, loving, presence, sustaining the beautiful family she created and always available to the extended family... those of us she inherited. She epitomizes the sweetness that is partly Payne family genetics but probably mostly a choice about how she was determined to live in the world. She is the end of the last generation of Paynes. Now it's up to the rest of us! She created a family that is stable, supportive and present for each other. This kind of love is so tangible that it DOES NOT disappear because she passes. Reach out, look around you when you are in need and you will feel her love.

I am in Europe in Budapest doing Performance Art. I am dedicating that performance to our Aunt Peg.

This is from First Corinthians

Love is patient and kind; Love is not jealous or boastful; It is not arrogant or rude...

Love does not insist on its own way.

It is not irritable or resentful.

It does not keep count of evil done, is not happy over wrongdoing, but shares the happiness of truth.

Love is all-sustaining, all-faithful, all-hopeful, all-enduring.

Love never fails

“ Mom...you are my greatest inspiration. Your selfless investment throughout our lives prepared us to choose to lead our own children by your example. You have and you will continue to impact & to inspire my three children. I will miss you and honor your memory every single day. Through your example of faith I have gained an inner strength and peace that I did not know I was capable of internalizing. I thank God that he picked you to be my Mom...I have been blessed. I love you forever Mom.

“ My mom was the most inspirational person that I have ever known. She was dedicated to her faith the Blessed Mother and her family. I truly believe that my mom genuinely touched all that knew her. I will forever miss her and only hope that when my life is over my kids will have a small sliver of the respect love and admiration that I have for her. I love you Ma God bless you and we will meet again.

“ I have so many fond memories of my sweet Grandma, but one of my favorites and one that I will always hold near and dear to my heart is when she met our daughter, Penelope. Grandma was always so patient and had the kindest and most loving soul. Penelope picked up on that right away and was immediately drawn to her. It was amazing to see and a memory that I'll never forget. Rest in peace, sweet angel, we know you'll always be watching over us! We love you!
