“ I remember the first time I met mom. She was very kind to me. My fondest memory is of her and I having conversations and she would flip from Spanish to English and then back again, never faltering, just continuing on her way.

Suddenly, she would stop, laugh, hug me, and apologize and ask if she needed to repeat what she said in English. After so many years, I finally was able to pick up most of the conversations she and I had even when it was in Spanish! She actually did me a favor--when I went to Texas to work, I wasn't as lost with the Spanish community members. I will miss her dearly. She made a mark on many people's lives. May she rest in peace.

Dear Mike, Rose, and Michele; Annette, your brothers and sisters, and all of Lucy's family, I always remember Lucy laughing and making me feel happy. Most of the times I shared with her were at celebrations at Mike and Rose's or at Gloria's and we always had such a good time. The last time I saw Lucy was at Michelle's quincenera, all of us ladies looked so pretty, and of course, we had a great time. I am sure Lucy is now having the ultimate of celebrations in heaven with her loved one. Know that all of you are in our love and prayers, and we are with you in spirit. From your friends in Christ, as always, Mario and Janie Cantu (Rose's brother-in-law and sister)
