“ Alan was a very unique person I met at Fermilab. He stood out because he was not like everyone else. Most of his circle of friends were that way too, myself included. The world is now a bit more bland because of his passing. He was always having fun and passed the good feelings onto everyone he knew. He is missed, and will be for many years to come.

“ AI was a beloved friend of mine and will be truly missed. I worked with him on our community BOD and he helped establish a series of community events his favorite of course was Halloween. The last 1-1/2 years were a struggle for AI and I cherished the times we spent together during those days. I love you AI now Rest In Peace! Until we meet again - Kim
