“ Al and I were best buddies and lifelong friends. We joined the navy together at age 17, and from there our journey began. He was like a brother to me. We had so many good times together, including family vacations. You will be truly missed my friend.

“ We have so many wonderful memories from hundreds of rounds of golf to many evenings laughing and playing cards. It was a joy watching Danny and Sandy grow up. We remember teaching our daughter to ride a two-wheel bike on the purple bike Sandy handed down to her. Then buying Sandy's first car from her to give to our daughter...a repainted fire engine red Oldsmobile. Who else besides Al would paint a car with a can of paint and a roller!?!
We hope you find peace in your memories and comfort in hearing the memories that so many friends hold dear.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
