The time has come to say good-bye. We had some lively times. You danced and drank the night away at our wedding and you and Carol became fast friends with my family. You and my dad shared the news when your first grandson was born. You fished with my brother in Florida and you became an honorary hillbilly of the Cades Cove clan. I'm sorry for not being at your funeral. But I will cry for you anyway. Which is something since I don't cry often. You outlived 'em all Alex. You never could leave a good party. I love you. Peace be with you dearest father in law.

“ Uncle Alex was such a kind man and always had a smile on his face. He seemed to always have a group of people around him and everybody was laughing. I used to love visiting him and Aunt Carol because they always had a dog.

To Debbie, Tony and Eric, and all his grandkids and great grandkids, I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ I remember Alex as a kind person. He loved a good practical joke. At GADCO he and Ernie Pirafalo use to try and hide an old coat under each other's car and Alex would laugh as Ernie would drive off and the coat would fall out from underneath and get dragged down the road. He was great to work with.

My condolences to the family. Our prayers are with you.
