Aunt Alice always smiled. The few times I was able to be with her, she simply never stopped smiling and what a beautiful smile she had!! Two of the photos in "A Journey of Remembrance" brought back wonderful memories of the time (1985- I think) when I was fortunate enough to hangout with my mom (Sally) and her four sisters, during their reunion in Laguna Beach. The pictures of the five of them (Alice in the middle) on the beach and then sailing up at Newport (Alice in the middle again) show how important it was for Alice to never miss a word that one of her sister might say and boy, when all five of them were together, there were plenty of words being said! I will remember my aunt Alice as an excellent role model for how to live unselfishly and with perseverance, humility and grace. We should all take comfort in knowing that now, the good Lord has Alice, with her awesome smile. Peace to all of my Foley cousins and your families, with love from Jim Auther and family.

Miss her every day, but so thankful for all the time myself and kids had with her here on Earth...she always gave what she had and was never concerned with what she would get in turn... All she needed was her faith!
