“ Alice was a very dear friend to us. We laughed so hard at times and I am sure she shared some of our stories with you!. Alice was always dressed to perfection. She had many friends of all ages. She was a very hard worker. She helped me many times as I helped her. The best times were when all of the girls would meet for our Girl's get together. I am so glad we had a moment to talk to here her voice once more before she left us. .

We will miss her dearly. Karen, Beverly, Kari, Darlene, Marie,

“ To the family of Alice Nickels,
You would not know us, but we remember Alice as a friend of Joan Browns. We worked at the Paramount Arts Centre in the 1990's. We remember her as a fun loving person with a wonderful smile and a quite wit. We know live in FL, but read the Aurora Beacon frequently and saw she had passed. We are sorry for your loss. She was a great person.
