“ My condolences to your family, God bless you all. Ana was very special to all of us in our AGCO team. I enjoyed practicing my Spanish with her in our little conversations. She was very smart, helpful, positive, smiling, and always had nice things to say. Ana is missed by all of us. Warren White

“ Ana and I worked together for many years. What a beautiful person. We shared family stories, work stories, and our favorite Bible stories and verses. God blessed us with her presence and compassion. She always wished she could go to Mass every day. And now she can. Please say one for us, Ana. Miss you.

“ I cannot express how much I will miss Ana and how much her friendship meant to me. Friendship isn't even quite the right word; we called each other sister, and that is truly what we always will be. After being blessed to meet at our church we had almost four wonderful years of laughter and hugs and stories and love. It breaks my heart that we didn't get to have more time together, but I am grateful to God for bringing her into my life and giving us the time that we did have. She is and will always be one of my greatest gifts.

I will miss everything about her, her beautiful smile and laugh; her love for her family and friends; her deep and abiding faith in God. I will especially miss geeking out with her over C.S. Lewis and the Golden Girls!! She was one of the only people I know who could quote the show like I can, and we would laugh and laugh over the escapades of the four ladies of Miami!! I loved introducing her to the writings of C.S. Lewis and we had such interesting conversations about his books and ideas. And she was very patient with me and managed not to get annoyed by my constant quoting of his work!! There is nothing better than sharing things you love with people you love, and I am so grateful that Ana and I had so much to share with each other. How I will miss that, and how grateful I am to have had it.

To her beloved family, especially her dear parents, you are in my constant prayers and I pray that our Lord and His Blessed Mother will wrap you in their arms and be your comfort and strength in the midst of your terrible grief. Please know that Ana is loved by so many, and her memory will always be cherished by those lucky enough to know her.

Thank you Ana, for being you, for being my soul sister and the friend of my heart. You walked in such friendship with the Lord in this life, and I know that you are now walking with Him in perfect communion in your true home. I rejoice in the knowledge that I will see you again, in the place where there will be no more sorrow and no more tears. I love you so much and always will. - Erica Wiggins

“ Ana has been my mentor and friend for the last couple years. She was always so patient with me. I grew up in the Catholic church so we had that in common. She was so fun to share the stories of my childhood experiences in the church as an alter boy and the all the crazy antics that my brothers and I pulled off. I use to tease her about her OCD and I would do things that I knew would trigger her. It turned into a joke "They have medication for that". I will miss her greatly.

“ I got this from Ana, and she was right, we were coworkers, friends and mostly sisters by heart. Like sisters, we had our come to Jesus moments that we called (CTJ moments). During these moments we talked, shared, vented and prayed for each other. She really was a beautiful sister with a beautiful soul. Always there to listen and help. I miss you sis...Rest In Peace

“ Dear Family,
I was blessed of knowing Ana! She was extremely professional and dedicated. Good friend who is always there for you. Years ago, I told her that she is a fallen angel with the mission to make this world a better place. Now God decided that she completed her mission. I will miss every single moment with her full of joy and happiness.

I lost my Puerto Rican "hermana", but she will never be forgotten and remain in my heard.

Rest In Peace, Ana!
