“ Andy was in my third grade at Smith for the school year 1991-1992. I remember him as an always cheerful boy, always smiling. How can you forget that head of curly blonde hair? I was so sorry to hear of Andy's passing. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ One of my fawness memories is when Andy was little and we would go to the circus or ice shows and to keep him from wandering off I told him he had to hold Dons hands so Don would not get lost. One time Don had let go of his for a moment and Andy yelled. DON YOU GOT TO HOLD MY HAND SO YOU DONT GET LOST. Don and I just smiled.

“ Andrew was one of the finest of people. He loved Jesus and was a great servant. As a youth minister, he would be a person that I could hold up to today's youth as someone to emulate. There are many great memories of Andrew. The highlight was taking him to the Vatican for World Youth Day 2000 where he was one of 100 teens from all over the world who volunteered to dance as part of the opening ceremonies. He was always available to help whenever called upon. May he rest now in the arms of Jesus.
