“ 6/2/16 I loved Vince, Mary, Ann, and runny-nosed little sister Coggy, in that order. (Because Ann& Coggy were much, much younger than we 4 oldsters: Bill K., Vince T. , Mary T. and "Doc" K. Our parents were very good and stable friends. We older Kaman kids loved the older Tornabene kids and we shared many sleepovers and babysitting details. Thankfully the girls never fell out of a car on their heads, but Vince did, and he's been that way ever since. Vince was an altar boy with me many times, and he thankfully broke my Holy Angels school record of goofing up at the daily 08:15 school Mass with Msgr. F. F. Connor. Ann, you were special, and we'll see you again in heaven. love, Bill Kaman (10.7 in dog years)
