“ I had the privilege of knowing Anna since I lived just 20 feet from her home in the North house on Empire Road for the past year. Her kindness to me and my wife and her brave example to my grandchildren was most exemplary. She spoke to them with a warm heart..held their hands with a soft touch ... and touched our hearts with her kindness inspite of her own afflictions. Many times we sat listening to the ball games outside her back door on her radio. She loved the flowers in bloom and the bright red tomato plant outside her door. Her courage during her final weeks is an example we all should admire. Anna...rest in peace for you are back home with Victor....
With my respect
