“ Thank you, David, for your timely phone call. Anne has always remained Una to me, and to her many BVM friends. My memories include our wonderful 6-week travels in Europe in the 60's following her studies at the Sorbonne, and many visits to the Schaefer family home--all good. Micaela Conley and I enjoyed Una and Marty's several home locations over the years, and I was able to keep up with both when they lived in Aurora. There were periodic meetings for lunch halfway between Oak Park and Aurora while Una and Marty were still driving distances, and finally phone visits kept Una and me in contact. It was either Thursday or Friday before her death that we talked.

We BVM friends will remember Una at a Mass at Mt. Carmel in Dubuque, Many sisters, especially those from Clarksdale will be able to attend. And I'll be lifting a glass of good French wine in her memory myself.

Live in God's eternal loving presence, dear Friend. Mary Martens,
BVM
