*I lived behind Audrey with my parents. She was such and sweet, caring friend. I remember when I was little I would go in our backyard and play with her dog snuckers through the fence. He would bounce his big ball over the fence into our yard. We would play for hours. I would share my lollipops with him. Audrey would always look out for me when I was playing outside. She even came to my wedding when I got married in 2001. She will be missed by everyone who was blessed to know her. God Bless.

“ You may have been 96 but if I called and said I am coming to town do you want to do lunch, you would be ready and waiting when I pulled into your drive. Never one to miss a trip somewhere or a chance to get out for a visit you had the energy of a 21-year-old. We will all miss you and your smile, your kind heart, and your generous nature. The year of being locked down for Covid was rough but we still enjoyed sitting in the yard, with the proper distancing of course, and chatting. Nothing was going to keep "this old girl from giddyup and going." My grandkids will sure miss seeing Miss Audrey at all the family functions. Say "hi" to Gene. He was a great guy and now you can be together again.
