This is an amazing footprint of how beautiful my Mother was. She was so gifted and full of kindness to all that she met with along her journey...she was a Mom to all of my friends, and to many others as well! She was an extremely spoiling grandmother!! She was so full of love, almost to a fault (if one could be!) I love her so much, and find comfort that she lives thru me. I cannot imagine that a single day will ever pass that I won't miss her and like my Father, being able to touch her or hug her. She is forever locked in my heart, and someday we will meet and hug again! I love u Mom!

“ We all miss you so much Barb. You are a beautiful, intelligent, and kind woman who has touched the lives of many. We are truly sad that you are no longer with us, but we are happy to know that you are at peace and watching over all of us.

“ Hi Barb, it is me. All of our lives we have loved each other and showed each other how much we meant to each other. So I see no need in writing all over this page the things that we both understood and knew. I will miss you, God how I will miss you every day of my life. You were always a fighter and your last sad wish was to go home. You are home now baby, in the arms of Jesus. I will always be content to know that I was your favorite older sister and that Jack was your favorite younger brother. I will be joining you in the future. We will catch up then. Have a peaceful journey.

“ To My Dear Aunt Barb,
You were a special lady with many gifts. I am honored to be your niece. Your laugh, your smile, kindness and loving nature is greatly missed. The last time I saw you, you told me “Be happy. Love your life. I love you.” I promise you, Aunt Barb, I am and I will. I will remember you every day and I will pay your kindness forward any chance I get. To my dear cousins, and my sisters, my heart is heavy for all of us and may we all cherish our memories of our dear aunt and your mother. To my mom, dad, Aunt Terry and Uncle Leroy—I am so sad you lost your loving sister. You know she would want you to be strong for each other and that is exactly what you’re doing. We love you Aunt Barb!

“ To my Dearest Wife, I am so sorry I can't be at your service and I know you understand why. My heart, my soul, my thoughts and above all my love is with you. I miss you deeply, you were my best friend, you were my rock, you were my teacher, you were my loving wife. I know you want me to keep going and to take good care of our "kids", I promise to do my best. I miss you, Barb more than anyone will ever know or understand. Be at peace now, Barb. Love, your Husband Bob.

“ My deepest sympathy to Barb's Family. She was also my family, she was wonderful sister-in-law and a special friend. When we were both together it was funny because of our names being the same, she always wanted to be called "Barb" and I had to be "Barbara". I remember when I set Barb and Bob's wedding party at the Batavia Bowl, they were so surprise and they were so happy. Barb you will be truly miss. You are now at peace with your fur babies. May you rest in peace, Barb.
