“ So sorry to hear our sweet loving Aunt Betty passed away. That photo of her is how she always greeted everyone. As time goes by, we miss all our family members who have left us. I feel for all you cousins as you find your way without your Mom. I send much love as I remember all the wonderful Lay family reunions.
Love and prayers,
Bobbie

“ Grandma Betty, you will be missed. I had the privilege to have known you for some time and you embraced me from day one. your smile and sweetness and the prayers for my family when we needed the most... I will forever remember. Heaven gained a wonderful angel. I pray for the wonderful family you leave behind that they find peace and healing throughout this difficult times. thanks for the great memories grandma Betty.

“ It was evident with every phone call Betty and I had that she loved her family very much and that she prayed for each of you. Her faith was so strong and an inspiration to me. I always felt so good after talking to her and listening to the joy in her voice as she talked about her family and the Lord. She will be missed but we all know she is looking down from heaven and watching over all of us. Love Cheryl Feldott Thevil.
