“ I was a frequent visitor at the Dieser house growing up. I can't remember a time when Carol didn't welcome me warmly.

After the birth of her first great-grandchild, I saw her and you, Ed, at the Walgreens on Kirk Rd. and I remember how proudly she talked about her new grandchild and how she had waited for this event. Despite her struggle, she was glowing with pride and happiness.

In the short time she was here she lived a big life.

Dori, Eddie, Ed, my sincere condolences. Your mother and wife was a wonderful person that many of us cherished throughout our lifetimes and will long remember.

“ My condolences to all the family. I have many fond memories of the times when Vanessa and Eddie were young (we lived on Alyce Lane), and of when Georgia and Carly were lectors with me at St. Joseph's. Carol was always upbeat and encouraging, and she will be missed by everyone who knew her.

“ Dori and family,
I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I clearly remember her being a big member of the ACC community. But more than that, she was a very "classy" woman who was rightfully proud of her family. I remember that she had a beautiful smile and was very kind to me always. My prayers for all of you.

“ So sad to say goodbye to this beautiful lady. Her smile would light up a room. And her love for her family was so obvious. She will be missed. Love to all of you, Ed, Dori and Buzz, Eddie and Avril, and all of you special grandkids. Can't forget baby James. I'm sure he was the light of her life, also. We love you.
