“ Aunt Connie was special. My mom and dad loved her annual visits and I was fortunate to be visiting at the same time from my home in Las Vegas a few times during Aunt Connie's visits. After my dad passed, aunt Connie's visits meant the world to my mom... they seemed to be 2 peas in a pod. One of my very favorite memories (aside from her beautiful wedding to my Uncle John) was short-sheeting her bed during one of those visits. I laughed so hard when I heard her streak "Rosanne!!!" When she realized what I'd done. I loved teasing her and threatening to pay someone to repeat my act when I couldn't be there. Hmm... I wonder if I could pay Daileiden to short sheet the coffin??! I'll miss you aunt Connie. My sincere condolences to my cousins ❤️❤️❤️

“ Connie was always a very kind and giving person. If there was something she could do to make it easier for someone in need, she would do it. Her family was her pride and joy. The last few years for her were difficult because she was housebound. She made the best of it always. She will be greatly missed. Ginger

She did love to play cards. We took great trips together with our card playing girls. She loved to visit with friends. Always worried about others. She is finally out of pain now. Rest In Peace Connie

I'll always remember Connie as a quiet and sweet young woman in high school. She was a kind person. Not many her age could say that. Rest in peace, dear Connie. Arlene (White) Peters
