

Caroline H. Aloisio

June 1, 1950 - January 25, 2017

Caroline H. Aloisio, 66, of Aurora, passed away Wednesday, January 25, 2017 at Presence Mercy Medical Center after a brief, courageous battle with lung cancer. She was born June 1, 1950, the daughter of Sylvester and Ruth Latino.

Carol was the heart and soul of her family. Her motto was always “faith and family.” They came first above all else. She never missed a school event, party, and above all, a ballgame that one of her grandchildren was playing. She was devoted to her loving husband, Bob, and that love was celebrated in September as they shared 50 special years together. She was inseparable from her mother Ruth, her constant inspiration and best friend. She lived for dinners, vacations, and get togethers with her family. Carol’s faith in God was never ending as she taught Religious Education for many years. God was the center of her life, and she gave to others endlessly. She never said ‘no’ to anyone, and never expected anything in return. Her smile was contagious and her goofiness brought many laughs to us all. We’ll always remember and never forget...NO ONE FIGHTS ALONE.

Survivors include her mother, Ruth (Jones) Latino; husband of 50 years, Robert Aloisio; children, Gina (Chris) Dickerson and Robert (Bridget) Aloisio, Jr.; sister, Deborah (Latino) Rodgers; grandchildren, Amanda (Thomas) Catomer, Luke Dickerson, Julia Dickerson, Adam Dickerson, Justin Aloisio, Zachary Aloisio, Kyle Aloisio, and Kara Aloisio; great-grandchild, Kaylyn Catomer; many special nieces, nephews and cousins.

She is preceded by her father, Sylvester "Sam" Latino.

Carol's family would like to thank all the medical staff at Rush-Copley Medical Center, Presence Mercy Medical Center, and especially Rainbow Hospice.

“ While a student at St. Nicholas Catholic School, seeing Mrs. Alosio's smiling face was an almost daily occurrence. Sometimes she was substituting for a teacher, sometimes she was volunteering in a classroom or the office or the lunch room, sometimes she was waving to all of us as we made our way into school (or out of school) for the day. When she smiled at you, her eyes lit up and her face brightened to show you that she was sincerely happy to see you. My prayers and sympathy to her family and friends.

“ Caroline and Debbie Latino were my first childhood friends. I. Will never forget playing school in the second bedroom on Grand Blvd. Carol was always the teacher! I remember having many dinners with the family my favorite was any Italian dish. Sammy would play tunes on the hifi and we would dance on the porch. This was my family and I love and appreciate you all. Thank you for all you did for me in my childhood and good Carol could play school, that's why she was good at teaching for her church. Always loved Caroline and your wonderful family. Happy you are with your sweet dad Sammy now and your Lord no more pain.
