September 27, 1930 - January 3, 2023

Catherine “Kay, Kate, Cathy” Helen Boehme, 92, passed away on Tuesday, January 3, 2023 at the home of her daughter Cathy after a brave battle with dementia. Preceding her in death are her beloved husband, August “Dude” Boehme and former husband, Richard Stuebinger; sons, Steven and Richard Stuebinger; brothers, Patrick and James McCluskey; sisters, Mary Neill Chapman, Margaret Chambers, and Theresa O’Conner Weiss.

“ I took care of GK for 3 yrs. we became like family to each other. she always had a rhyme or special saying and loved to sing her country songs to me. I learned the words to each song and we would put on polka videos and dance in her wheelchair and also when she became bedridden. GK was a champ at checkers. she would beat everyone who played against her. I have so many memories of her. You are at peace now and restored to your old self. Heaven has gained another Angel. One day we will meet again. Love you GK. will miss you. Love pddin tain Evelyn
