When I think of Aunt Charlotte, I think of her kitchen with all the treats--mainly her peanut brittle and chocolate sheet cake. Keeping you all in my prayers Robert, Beth Ann, Kathy, Jane, and Michael.

“Charlotte was my Roof mate for many years. We would talk back and forth from our decks. She loved the potted plants she had on her deck. Every day she would be deadheading them or watering them.
Every Christmas she would bring me her yummy peanut brittle. Her cookies were a treat, too. You have been missed since you moved. Now to a new chapter with the angels. Rest in peace dear friend.
