“ I miss you so much mom. You weren't the greatest in the book, but you were my mom. No one else's, and you always tried to guide us in the right direction, even if your methods were a little un-cooth. I still love you, and even though it's been years since you've gone; I still think about you and the last time we saw each other. I'm grateful to have been able to let you know I love you before you went away. I am grateful that my last memory of you is giving you a really good hug outside of my house. Thank you for taking those two days to walk over to my place. I would have so many regrets if you hadn't have done that mom. Still wish you were around. You missed Erin's two children being born, me moving to California, I'm trying to figure life out. I wonder at times if things would be different if you hadn't have left; but that isn't the reality that is. I wish I could have taken all your pain away, you always deserved more. I love you mom.

“ Chris I know you and I had some hard times but I love you and miss you. I'm so sorry I wasn't there for you like I should have been. I know your with our Lord now and I know your pain is gone. One day I will see you again. I love you. I won't ever forget how you were there for me and my kids when we had nothing! I will miss the talks we use to have late at night. Matthew and Taryn will always know their Aunt and I wont forget the love you had for everyone. Rest in Peace Chris and know one day all the family will be home together.

Chrissy, Words cannot express the grief within my heart. We had so many happy times together as you grew up. You were the daughter I never had and calling me your second mom made me feel special. I thank you and will always have those memories. You will be missed. God be with you, I love you, rest in peace. - Aunt Roe

My dear cousin Chris. You will be so missed by many. As cousins growing up I always looked forward to Holidays just to be able to play with you. There seemed to never be enough Holidays. I could never thank you enough for helping our family out when needed. I'm glad for those memories as well. It wasn't till then that I got to see you as a beautiful caring mother of three. You hold a special place in my heart. Rest in Peace.
