

Claude E. Walton

March 25, 1935 - July 11, 2018

Claude E. Walton, 83, of Batavia, passed away Wednesday, July 11, 2018, at Tabor Hills of Naperville. He was born March 25, 1935 in Holly Springs, MS. Claude proudly served in the United States Air Force during the Korean Conflict in the Strategic Air Command. After his service Claude worked for All Steel for 43 years.

He enjoyed all types of gardening including his floral garden, vegetable garden, tending his lawn, and arboriculture. Claude enjoyed spending as much time outdoors as he could throughout the year.

Claude was a faithful member of Main Baptist Church where he served as a trustee and the Chairman of the Building Fund. Throughout the years, Claude and Dorothy supported local and national charities that focused on children, and served as foster parents. To Claude there was nothing more important than his Faith and his family.

He is survived by three children, Anthony (Deborah Murphy) Walton, Timothy (Julia Vest) Walton, Claudette Walton; three grandchildren, Niko Vest-Walton, Malik Vest-Walton, Maren Walton; siblings, Etta McCauley, Paulette Dean, Armeda Doss, Carlene (James Henry) Anderson, Clyde Walton, Hatti (Edward) Johnson; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 59 years, Dorothy Walton; parents James and Alma Walton; siblings, Vera Milan, Albert Walton, Judson Walton, Bernice Foster, Dalton Walton, and Cornell Walton. .

“ To the children of Claude E. Walton :
"Go, in His great mercy, knew when loved one had to part,
Something special would be needed to bring comfort to the heart,
So He gave us each a precious gift not even time can fade
Of reliving tender moments through the memories we've made.
We would like to express our sympathy to you and your family in this, your time of sorrow.
We pray that God's grace and mercy will give you comfort and peace during this difficult time. Our prayer of God's love surround you and give you strength to endure.

May God's blessings be with you all
With love Aunt Lela, Lessie Bell and Family
