“ He was the last of the true original Perez family members, that provided examples that we all live by today. I remember many a laughs watching Uncle Danny and his brothers and sister interact. They made famous the Breakfast Club where Aunt Julie made breakfast and provided an environment for their immediate siblings to share stories and laughs.

It's a legendary era that has come to pass but now they have just moved the Breakfast Club upstairs . Ben, Wally,Julie and Pete were saving a seat at the table for Uncle Danny.

God Bless your soul

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the entire Perez family. Fond memories of Uncle Dan from all summer vacations in Nebraska and Streff family reunions. Favorite memory of him is at the Hoffman farm trying to keep the flies away. No one could swat a fly like Uncle Dan!! Celebrating him in life and death.
