“ Very sorry to hear this news of Dan. He was a big influence in my life. I will always remember our fishing trips during the Chicago air shows. We lost touch over the years but was often thought of. He will be greatly missed. He was a great person and big part of my family.
My thoughts and prays go out to his family.

“ Dan you were the best man at our wedding and a best friend. My happiest memory is the outragous christmas tree we put up at our house and all the fishing trips to Ohio. But my most precious memory of all this the great guy your were. Will always remember and love you. Your sister in law Laura
