

Daniel Patrick Gaudio

December 28, 1972 - May 7, 2015

Daniel Patrick Gaudio, 42, passed away Thursday, May 7th at his home. He was born December 28, 1972 in Dekalb, Illinois, the beloved first grandson on both sides of his family.

He graduated from Holy Angels Grade School, attended Marmion Military Academy, graduated from West Aurora High School and attended Waubensee Community College and the University of Wisconsin at Madison. He lived for 17 years in Madison where he was employed by the Food Fight Chain of restaurants as a waiter. He loved the Badgers, movies and music, his Irish heritage and his cherished cat, Rosy.

He is survived by his parents, John and Terri Gaudio of Sugar Grove, his brother Mark and his wife Marcy and their children, Parker, Dominick and Frank of Germantown Hills, Illinois, his brother Tony and his wife Holly and their children, Johnny and Giuliana of Sugar Grove. He is further survived by his loving aunts, uncles and cousins who were such an important part of his growing up years here in Aurora.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Tim and Jean Kinnally and his paternal grandparents, Louis and Marie Gaudio, all of Aurora.

“ I am extremely saddened that Dan has passed. Dan and I were close friends in Madison, and worked at Stillwaters together. I have so many wonderful memories of that period of time, and Gaudio was a huge part of them. Dan and I saw each other nearly every day, and watched "Party of Five" together every week. He was smart, witty, and jovial. I left Madison for a period of time, and lost contact with many of my Madison friends; but Dan and my friendship remained. I would see him every time I came back to Madison to visit, and we would talk and laugh. As the years went by, his path became difficult; and it was heartbreaking. I love my friend, I hurt for his pain, and I miss him now.

I am so sorry I cannot attend the services this weekend; as I am out of town. I would like to organize a Madison remembrance for Dan this summer, and would love to meet his family and friends.

Your family are all in my thoughts and prayers. He is at peace, smiling down on all of us. Love you Gaudio!
