“ I first met Dan when he was donating his time to coaching St. Therese CYA basketball team in the late 50's. One of my best friends, Ken Buss, was a member of that team. At that time he allowed me to help him at practices a little bit. That friendship forged during that year continued down through all these years. Dan always went out of his way to say hi everytime he saw me. His type of greeting always made you feel special. I have to double what someone else had remarked earlier, he always had a smile. Dan was one of a kind and will probably never be replaced. I will have a Mass offered in the Traditional Latin Church, St. Mary's Oratory, in Rockford. I will miss Dan.

“ I know there are no words to ease anything right now. I do know how happy Jackie is to be a part of your family so that shows me how wonderful your parents are and what they meant to you. I will look at the same place in the sky as I do every night, star or not and say a prayer for your dad and family.

My condolences to the family of Danny Guddendorf. I have known Danny a long, long time, having attended St.. Thresa's school with his sister, Gretchen.

I remember Danny as always helping with the Marmion class reunions, and anywhere else on the campus that needed attention. He was a Marmion Man in the truest sense of the word. May God reward him for his earthly efforts.
