“ I met Danny in my early teen years when he and his mom lived upstairs from us. I remember how he was always working on a car or just goofing around with his buddies. Somehow we all became friends and eventually he wound up marrying one of my friends (Mary). To me Danny was like the big brother that I never had and trust me as a teenager he did his fair share of tormenting me just like a brother might do! We used to try to outdo the other with our practical jokes.

Through the years as friends sometimes do we drifted apart but each time we met up conversation always came easy..and so did the pranks and practical jokes! Danny was a fun loving person who always knew how to make you smile. He was always there when you needed him and quick to lend a hand. I remember how he went with me to buy a new car just to make sure that I did not get taken advantage of, not to mention the many times he helped when I had car trouble or computer advice.

Danny, you will be missed deeply by all those who knew you and loved you. May you find the peace that you deserve. I know you will keep everyone smiling where you are now. Good bye my buddy.

“ It was an honor to have had Danny work for me all of those years. He was a soft spoken "gentle giant" who cared very much for his family and friends. You will be missed Big Boy, may you rest in peace. Bill Cessna- Excel Displays
