Dean was more than just a Jewel customer, he became a friend to all of us because of his kindness and thoughtfulness. He remembered all our names and took an interest in our lives and families. Dogs were our special interest and I will miss our conversations. I will miss him. My prayers are with his family.

I also knew Dean from Jewel on Lake Street. I echo what Colette had to say. Dean was always a gentleman's gentleman. He was always cheerful and friendly, and asked about our families. My husband is a history teacher so Dean always had knowledgeable tidbits to share. We will miss him! Sandy Berg
