My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time. I do not know if I can be there due to my compromised immune system which keeps me from those who may have anything contagious. I will be there with you in my heart.

Craig I want you to know that I hope you will find your way now and use your energy to help others. I know all your family would be with you as you go forward. My love is always with you and everyone close to you.

Dean you are now with Kathy and at peace together again.
