“ I was so sorry to hear of Diane's passing. Diane and her parents lived 3 doors south of my home. We grew up together playing on Harper Avenue with Hannah Daly and Earline Connors. I was lucky to speak to Diane last fall after she had attended the St. Ailbe Reunion. I wasn't able to attend since I have moved to Arizona. My brother was there and he told me that Diane and Earline had attended. When I spoke with Diane-she told me how proud she was of her children and grandchildren. She was thankful to her husband for supporting her while she was dealing with serious health issues. Maybe at some point, I can connect with her parents who also now live in Arizona.

My sympathies to all of her family. She was my good friend and playmate growing up.
