“ Larissa and I were fortunate to be able to visit Aunt Delores on a trip to Chicago a couple of years ago. It was great to see that her shining spirit, positive outlook, and enduring faith never faded. I have many great memories of taking Brad and Allie to visit Uncle Maury and Aunt Delores as they always had words of encouragement and love to share. As a young boy, I always enjoyed the family gatherings at their home, which was always filled with lots of love, joy, and laughter. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family in this time of loss and celebration of a life lived to the fullest.

“ My Aunt Delores was a saint and is now with the angels! I will never forget what a good, kind and strong person she was...to have given so much of herself to take care of my Uncle Maurie for so many years!

I will never forget the Holidays with my Aunt & Uncle and their beautiful home & generosity. When we were kids we would love to go there!

My deepest sympathy to you Brian and Mike and yes, Joanie!

I am with all of you today in spirit...I know you are celebrating the life of an amazing lady!

*It is comforting to think of her with Uncle Maurie and Keith...And, probably out golfing in the clouds with Uncle Stan this very moment!
Love to all of you!*

“ Many of us have always said; "Mrs Pillatsch is a saint" for her loving devotion to her husband during his long illness. She had a difficult life that included losing a young son (Keith) when he was in the prime of his life. Whenever I had the pleasure of being in her presence she displayed a great deal of class, warmth and a delightful sense of humor. My good friend Brian's mother was a saint and sincerely loved her family very much. She, like my Mother, loved her children and grandchildren unconditionally. She and her "famous Easter Lamb cake" will surely be missed.

May God watch over her during her eternal rest!
