“ Although I am saddened by your loss, I want to say thanks to Greg and Barbara for sharing both their parents with the Aurora community. They were among the first to share their memories of Ruth Van Sickle Ford with me and contributed greatly to my being able to write a book about this great artist. Your folks were great fun to visit with, invaluable helpmates, fine artists themselves, and all-around wonderful people. May God give you comfort during this difficult time. All the best, Nancy Smith Hopp

“ Dear Winkler Family,
Your mom and dad gave me my first job, I was the clean up girl at Elegant Beauty Salon. I went to OLGC with Greg and have very fond memories of your family. Your mom was a lovely lady. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I remember your mother well from when we were all at OLGC -- she was a lovely woman. I lost my mom 5 years ago and it was difficult even though it was "time." My prayers go out to you all. Ruth Smith Coan
