“ My sincere condolences to the family. I am very sorry for your loss. It's hard to handle the death of a loved one, but there is hope. God promises to bring back to life those who have fallen asleep in death by means of a resurrection to life right here on earth. John 5:28,29 says that "those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." What a reassuring hope for the future! May these words bring you comfort as your grieve.
