“ The first man to love me completely, and the first man that I loved: My Dad! Donald Kozloski was my hero, and I know that many people admired him. My heart is breaking, but I know that he is with God, watching over me, my Mom, my brother, and the rest of my family. Smiles he had everyday, so must we also continue to smile as we move on! Love and peace, Daddy.

“ So sorry for your loss.
My earliest memories are going to Don's, we didn't know it as The Bread Box then. Living near St Therese Church & School, as a kid it seems like we were there all the time. And Don was always the nicest & friendliest person no matter how many times a day we would come in.
God's Blessings to Don & his family.

“ I am 52 years old, when I was a kid my mom would take me and my brothers to the Bread Box for produce and Valley Maid ice cream. Don was always so nice to my mom and me along with my brothers. One of those good memories from days gone by.

Rest in peace Mr. Kozloski.
