“ Lee, Bonnie, Claire, Rick, and Biggie, I wish I could of been able to pay my respects to your Mom/Wife/Friend. My heart goes out to all of you during this difficult time. She was a wonderful person and I am glad I had the opportunity to get to know her. There were many times she reminded me of my Mom and that was very comforting. She will be missed! And I will never forget the endearing nick name ("poncho"), she had for me nearing the end of a party on one of your fantastic family vacations. She will remain close to my heart. Love you all and will keep you all in my prayers. Bernie

“ Bonifas'

What can I say. The Creek Road Community has lost a legend. No one can appreciate what we had back then, but us. My mom was your mom... your mom was my mom. My grandparents were yours and Nana and Baba were our Nana and Baba :) We spent as much time at each others house, as we did our own. Lots and lots of very fond memories. Thinking of you guys at this very sad time. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dick.

Our hearts go out to you and the kids. We were so sorry to hear of Edna's passing. We lost Glenn in February, so we know how your hearts are breaking. Your family were such good neighbors to us and we have a lot of happy memories of Creek Rd. Our sympathy and prayers to all of your family.

“ Uncle Dick, Claire, Bonnie, Rick and Leanne -- wanted you all to know that we are thinking of you and praying for you and are here for you. Today, being the 33rd anniversary of the Cow Sucks and Dick and Eddie being one of the originals was tough. We especially missed Dick and Eddie and pray for all of you. Brad and I celebrated our 24th year in our house (Nana and Baba Bonifas house) the other day and he has just so so many fond memories of all of you and your Mom driving them to school and church. We are so blessed to have had your mom as a part of our 33 years of marriage. Some of our best times were golfing and visitng with Dick and Eddie in Largo, Florida and they always, always had a cocktail waiting and appetizers ready that were awesome. God Bless all of you and our deepest condolences.
