“ We were not able to attend the wake service, but I will be at the funeral today...Lil was one of the sweetest women I have ever known in my life. My mother, "Rosie" as she was known by Lil, considered her the best friend she had ever had and their friendship continued their whole lives. I wish I had kept in touch better, I talked to her a little over a year ago but hadn't touched base except a Christmas card since then. She and Mom are probably laughing as we speak, there was always alot of that!

“ I have a very cute story about Lil. My husband worked for a Truss Company selling wooden trusses and building components. Lil knew this but I never realized that she thought he sold women's girdles (Trusses). It still makes me smile remembering the day that she realized that Paul did NOT sell women's undergarments!! She was so sweet and kind. Another memory is her taking Watercolor painting classes through a show on PBS - Still makes me smile

She was such a breath of fresh air!

“Recalling over 50 years of fond memories. Lil, among the most soft spoken, warm hearted, and strong willed people I've ever met. Her easy smile was always there. Her quick wit was always there. Her support of my Mother was always there. I will never forget her. May she rest in peace with The Lord.
