

Emory Diaz Sepulveda

August 13, 1992 - March 10, 2013

Emory Diaz Sepulveda's life full of love, vitality and passion was ended too soon in the early hours of Sunday, March 10, 2013. Mother, sister, daughter and friend, Emory was born August 13, 1992 in Humacao, Puerto Rico to parents Diana Sepulveda Rivera and Mario Diaz. She was raised in Yabucoa, Puerto Rico with her brothers, Jonathan and Joshua Diaz Sepulveda.

Emory was an active member of her church, an honors student and an accomplished weight lifter. She finished high school in Aurora, Illinois and then went on to continue her studies at Robert Morris University, where she earned an Associate Degree in Interior Design in the fall of 2011. With the turn of the new year, Emory met Chance Thompson and the two spent the next year loving one another and preparing to start a family in DeKalb, Illinois. On November 20, 2012 they were blessed with their son, Roy Raideyn Thompson, and their family was complete. Though her life has ended too soon, the love and beauty she spread is evident in everyone she touched, and she will live on in our hearts forever.

Visitation will be held Thursday, March 14, 2013 from 2:00 PM – 8:00 PM at THE DALEIDEN MORTUARY, 220 North Lake Street, Aurora, Illinois 60506. Funeral services will be held in Puerto Rico at a later date. 630-631-5500. Please visit our new interactive website at www.daleidenmortuary.com to leave condolences for Emory's family or sign the guest book.

“ "Did ya bring me pastalejos?" That was my ongoing joke at work just about everyday with this great lady. It was so enjoyable seeing her and Chance together. She was always smiling or laughing and making others smile. Good people.
