“ From Joyce's story, "When I was 15 years old I became a Christian. That's very important. Our Sunday School teacher told us we could be forgiven for all our sins. My ears perked up because I couldn't believe it. That Sunday morning I could not wait for the preacher to stop his sermon so I could go to the alter and accept Jesus Christ as my personal savior. Thus began my Christian walk. That was at Emerald Ave Church of the Nazarene"

“ I remember how fun-loving your mom and dad were, and how we enjoyed your visits. I was touched that they came all that way to Ohio for my wedding - goodness that's been 35 years ago now. My condolences to you, but cheers for Joyce. What a comfort to know they are no longer in pain, their bodies have been restored and they are living in His light! This would be unbearable I remember how fun-loving your mom and dad were, and how we enjoyed your visits. I was touched that they came all that way to Ohio for my wedding - goodness that's been 35 years ago now.
