“ My deepest condolences to all The Rocha family.

Señora Licha was a strong, wise and very generous woman. She certainly touched the heart of many of us. I had the honor and pleasure to live with her for 5 months, she gave me advices, she encouraged me, she prayed with me and many times she made me laugh. Rest in peace señora Licha. May God give her family the peace and strength to accept the loss of their mother and former wife.

La recuerdo con mucho cariño un angelito más que se va al cielo La Lore as she called me.

“ My mother was happiest when she was cooking, she enjoyed watching everyone eat her food. She always cooked for an army! If you didn't finish your food she always "what you didn't like it?"

“ My grandma was the strongest woman I knew. She loved her family and we loved her. Life will never be the same without her. My best memory of my grandma was going grocery shopping with her every weekend as a kid. I love you grandma. I'll miss you. May you rest in peace.
