“ Dear Family, please accept my deep condolences for your devastating loss. God knows the many tears that you cry. As you reflect on the many beautiful memories that Francisco left to cherish, may your hearts be moved. May God caress your aching hearts with his loving promise to reunite you together again in the future Paradise when he will bring an end to sickness, pain and even death. (Revelation 21:4, 5) You're in my prayers. (Acts 24:15)

“ Many people come and go in our lives. But Cisco is one person I will never forget. Once he let you inside his "tough" exterior, he was a sweet, kind soul. Always there to help out and brighten your day. He always called me "Boss," even years after he quit working for me. Hugs, love and prayers to his family.

“ It is so difficult to hear about the world's loss of Francisco. We worked with and knew Francisco for years. He was an upbeat energetic guy, always known for keeping things moving and keeping people laughing. Our thoughts are centered on Francisco, remembering the spark he put into life. Our prayers are with his family. To struggle through this time of deep emotion, and having this larger than life void, must be very hard. Hold on strong. It was a pleasure to have know Francisco for the short while he was here with us. Rest in peace now and forevermore.

“ I am sorry to here of the loss of Francisco he was a shining light whenever he walked in it was a delight to go to talk to him. Always receiving and respectful and with the truth. I know very few men like him. I was honored to know him and when we talked the game we love was most of the topic along with the family and how the last game was played or where they played at. Rest In Peace my friend. rgr
