“ Compadres Martin and Katie,

Come to Me

God saw that you were tired, and you were not expecting a cure, so He extended his arms and Said “Come To My Side”. We were looking at you crying, and we watched , as you were leaving, and even though our Love was so big, nothing would stop you from going. Your golden heart stopped beating, your active hands finally rested. God broke our hearts Just to show us that He only takes the Best of all.

“ God saw as you were getting tired
A cure was not to be
So he wrapped His arms around you
And whispered 'Come with Me.'

With tearful eyes
We watched you suffer
And saw you fade away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands laid to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

My heart weighs heavy and I am truly sorry for your loss, your family are in my prayers. Frank was a wonderful man and was taken from us too soon. Frank rest in paradise. You are now shining in heaven being a guardian angel for your family. Love always Tiffany, Ralph, and Caden.

“ My eyes filled up with tears as I heard the news
I find myself wishing that it wasn't real
Every time I think about it, pain is all I can feel
But my heart tells me that you will always be with me.

We had a lot of good times. I will never forget the time you and Isaiah tied my shoes together on our way to the Cubs game.

Fun times. You were like a brother to me, Frank.
I will love and miss him forever.

“ Life just isn't the same since Frankie passed;
I will never forget how he stood by my side.
I keep reminiscing about the times we shared,
I keep thinking about how much he cared and how much he made me laugh.
I will never forget the hugs, smiles and your laughter.
You will always be in my heart forever, Frankie.
Loved you like a son. Aunt Diane.
