“ Once again we are deeply saddened as we send our condolences to Glendel and Ned's whole family; it seems like just yesterday we mourned the passing of Ned, and now today we mourn the loss of Glendel. We've known both of them since we moved across the street in North Aurora so many, many years ago. They were such good neighbors, making the neighborhood feel like 'home' by their presence. Glendel was loved and held dear by many, both family and friends. The long life she enjoyed was truly a blessing, not only to her but to all of us. We shall deeply miss her, as we do Ned, and we pray that all those in sorrow at this time are able to join with us finding comfort in the knowledge that those who pass from us never truly leave, but remain alive in our hearts and memories.

“ So sorry to here about Glendells parting, we did not know about Neds passing. Will miss both of them. Used to play cards and go out to eat in New Smyrna Beach. A Great couple.

Steve, Mike, Linda and families: Words can not express the sorrow we feel at these times of your loss. Though Ned and Glendel are no longer with us in body, they will be forever in our memories. We have often thought of the good times shared by our families. A smile always follows, and sometimes, even laughter. May those memories shine upon your family, forever.
