“ I am sorry to learn of Glenn’s passing. In recent years I became re-acquainted with Glenn through my mother who was his first cousin on his mother’s Sennett side. He was a warmhearted man who cheerfully and graciously contributed to my research into the history of the Sennett family.

I know his passing leaves a hole in the hearts of many. On behalf of the Sennett and Hagan families, we pray for peace for his family and friends

“ I too remember many warm and happy visits to the Fletcher's home as a youngster. I loved knowing we had an "in" with Hostess and getting to eat some of those treats at their house. Glenn was such a funny man and I enjoyed my conversations with him as an adult. Most recently at a family reunion where I learned that he had served in WWII. He was such a nice man and I will always remember his sense of humor and of course, his special string bow tie! He will be missed! My thoughts and prayers are with all his family as they go through this difficult time.

“ My mom Joanne, who was Glen and Connie’s niece, would take my sister and I to their house for visits. It was always a fun visit and we had other kids to play with. I gotta say though I think it was those treks out to Aurora that started me on my love of hostess cupcakes. And oh boy I did love them. Glen was always a gracious man and a great family man. I miss those days with our family and we will miss Glen and his funny sense of humor.
