

Gwen E. Neubauer

August 9, 1929 - April 16, 2013

Gwen E. Neubauer, 83, of Aurora, passed away Tuesday, April 16, 2013 at Countryside Care Center in Aurora. She was born August 9, 1929, the daughter of Arthur and Elizabeth Neubauer of Hinckley, Illinois.

Gwen received a BA degree from the University of Illinois in Champaign/Urbana and took additional coursework at Northern Illinois University, the University of Colorado Boulder, National College and Stanford University. She began her career as a music teacher, and later taught kindergarten. In 1986 Gwen retired from her teaching career as a special education teacher in Elmwood Park, Illinois. She lived in Wheaton and then North Aurora. Gwen loved to travel. She traveled throughout Canada, the United States, Mexico, and went on a Windjammer Cruise to the Lesser Antilles. Gwen was a caring and compassionate person who brought joy to all who knew her. She was a member of St. Mark's Church in Aurora.

Survivors include her nephew, Tom (Marge) Olsen of New Berlin, WI; her niece, Kristine (Brad) Phillips of Hinckley; and three great nieces, Allison (Rich) Phillips-Zabelin of Elburn, Lauren Phillips of Chicago and Kaitlin Phillips of Hinckley.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Elizabeth (Newhouse) Neubauer; and two sisters, Gayle Hoggins and Joyce Olsen.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday, April 24, 2013 at 11:30 AM at St. Paul's United Church of Christ, 324 W. McKinley Ave, Hinckley, IL 60520. Pastor Kris Delmore will officiate with interment at Greenwood Cemetery in Hinckley, Illinois.
