“ Sandy, Joanne and Family - we are so sorry to hear this news. He was such a special guy. So warm and generous and funny and very tough (marine that he was). My kids, now adults, still have the wooden dinosaur that he made for them and our front porch has a beautiful bench that he made that makes me smile every time I look at it. I love it because it is a great symbol of neighbors enjoying time together, like all of the years that our parents sat in the driveway to shoot the breeze and stay connected to each other.

I'm so sorry that I cannot make the trip down as travel is prohibited for me until I can get my back issues to settle down. Please know we loved your Dad and Mom and though it has to be a consolation that they are now together, you will miss him very much. Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers.
