“ My memories are of many Wednesday night suppers and other events that I worked with Henrietta and Debbie at the Geneva Golf Club. Henrietta always so happy and helpful. She knew everything about that kitchen and just where everything belonged. It was her kitchen on those nights and we were all so glad and thankful to have her there. She had a long and love filled life and will be missed so much.

“ "Gert" would always fix the best sloppy joe's when Ern would have a card game in his single days. She would always say, "It's just manwich" I enjoyed her laugh. Moving to Florida I had not had much contact with her. Nice long life and now she can be at peace.

“ Ma Calpin you have been an inspiration to me thru out my life. You were my second mom. Growing up you never said a harsh word to us, yes we may have gotten a scolding from you for some of the things we did, but we knew we were loved. You were always there for us cheering us on, comforting us when we had boyfriend problems and whatever else popped up. You will truly be missed...GOD has you now so I know you will be watching down on us. Does that mean I have to start being good...too late but I will try. Love all of you and miss you so much. Thank you for all my wonderful memories that I have aquired. May GOD be with you in your time of need. Just know that Heaven is a better place now because of all the good people that have gone there.
Love Deb, Steve, Katie, Erin, Matt, and CJ
