“ Mema, I miss you so much every day! I can not explain to you how empty the house feels without you here! I am super blessed to have had such an amazing Abuela who would carry the world on her back for anyone. You and Tito were always such an inspiration to me and I cannot thank you enough for what you did for me. I am glad with all the memories I was able to make with you. The ultimate memory I have of you and I together was when I had tried speaking Spanish and said "Mema, you are the best Grandma anyone could ask for. Your response was Ahhh, No soy tu abuela, soy tu Mema!" You and I couldn't stop laughing at that. The most recent memory I have with you was The day before fathers Day, You, mi papi, and I went to the cemetery to visit Tito did the original prayers we would do, and then we headed over to El Tio's taqueria and you started telling mi papi y yo all these stories and then they gave you your jarrito you ordered but you said it didn't taste right to you so we switched and you just ended up giving out more stories to us. I miss you every day, I honestly could continue on story after story that I have with you but I promise you'll never be forgotten and I love you so much “ *Doña Inés . My heart is broken that you are gone.

You are one of the most kindest and loving person I have ever known. You were a great mother-in-law, grandmother, wife and mother.
God really blessed me with you . I was one of the fortunate ones to say I have two moms who love me.
I know without a doubt how much you loved me and I hope you felt the love in return . I will miss your warm smile, tight hugs and your blessings every time I would leave .
I am so lucky to have met your son and build a life with him. Thank you for raising the man that I love and for instilling in him the right values.
Thank you for treating me as if I was one of your own daughters. I will always remember you and love you forever .*
