“ Aunt Rene and Uncle Fran were always a must stop to agenda when we would travel or bring Grandma (Edna Dietiker) home to Pontiac. Summer vacations there meant good eats and plenty of it. It did not matter the age, there was a conversation for everyone. It was especially hard to see failing health affect their quality of life and to having had to give up the family home because of it. Fortunately, Aunt Rene and Uncle Fran built a legacy that they could be proud of. Sorry, to hear such a distinguished lady has passed. All our love, John and Linda Groves

“ Aunt Rene has always been a favorite of my childhood memories. She and Uncle Fran made every gathering fun. Uncle Fran and grandpa had such a camaraderie, they seemed to feed off each other and the jokes would fly! Grandma and Aunt Rene were right in there and gave as good as they got. Such grand ladies! You don't meet many with that kind of class anymore. As a kid I would just sit and listen to the stories. Rene was great to listen to. I especially loved family gatherings at her home. She fed us well. Rene loved and shared that love with so many. One of my favorite memories was when the meal was over and stories shared, our family would sing! It was wonderful! It was a joy to sit and listen and sing along if I knew the song. Aunt Rene was just days from her 101st birthday. I am sure she was ready. Few of her generation are left. I cannot imagine how difficult life without sight or hearing was for her. I am thankful to have known her. To Mike and all who called Rene mom and grandma I know how much this hurts. I am sorry for that, just remember the love she shared and all the good memories.
